BEESONS ANNOUNCE CABARET SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beeson, proprietors of Beeson Cleaners and one-time road show vaudeville actors, today announced a cabaret show and dance to be staged, September 27, by the San Francisco Theatrical club, of which they are members.

The show will be presented on Saturday evening, next week, at Druids Temple, 44 Page street, 8 p. m. There'll be union music, door prizes, and refreshments. Tickets may be purchased at Beeson Cleaners, next to Daly City theatre.

Family Cowpunchers

"Packsaddle" Ben Greenbough of Red Lodge, Mont., claims to have the bronc-ridingest family in the United States, declares the American Magazine. His two sons and two daughters go the rounds of about 25 rodeos every year, and consistently rope in the championship prizes.

Admit Tractor Parts

France will admit tractor engine parts into the country at reduced duties if they are to be used by farmers.

Now At Daly City Theatre

CACTUS CAGNEY RISES AGAIN as Bette Davis lends him a much-needed hand. Scene is from their new co-starring comedy hit, "The Bride Came C. O. D.," now playing at the Daly City theatre.

Diversified Ownership

One of the largest American oil producing companies supplies 21,000 retail outlets, yet it owns and operates but six of these filling stations, Axtell J. Byles, president of the American Petroleum institute, reports.

Long Ticket

Prof. Grosvenor Robinson of Bates college has begun an 8,000-mile bus tour of the United States. It took an entire afternoon to make out the 15-foot long bus ticket that will take him on his vacation, a substitute for a European tour.

Braid 'N Quills Only Frills

A CAMPUS QUEEN will be the girl who wears a smart ensemble like the one modeled here by Patricia Ryan, star of Columbia network's "Claudia and David" series. The tomato red gabardine reefer is trimmed with black velvet collar and cuffs embroidered in red soutache braiding. Her crushed black felt Homburg is trimmed with two streamlined quills. (Coat from Lanz of Salzburg)

Smoking Dog

One of the reasons Spokane County Superior Judge Fred Witt would not consider appointment to the Supreme court for which he was recently prominently mentioned was that his wife preferred to remain in Spokane. And one of the reasons that Mrs. Witt preferred to remain in Spokane was that she feared the change of climate might not be good for her 10-year-old pet fox terrior Tiny. Tiny is a fastidious animal in that he cannot start the day, Mrs. Witt says, without a cup of coffee well seasoned with sugar and cream, after which he demands a cigarette.

Alabama Homicides

Homicides are decreasing in Alabama. There were 29 less homicides in the state in 1939 than in 1938, the state health department vital statistics bureau reports.

"Tobacco Road" Returns to Curran

"Tobacco Road," the world-famous stage play with its realistic story which the picture dared not tell for fear of censorship, is returning to San Francisco for a farewell engagement at the Curran theatre beginning Sunday night, September 21. There will be matinees Wednesday and Saturday and seats will be scaled at popular prices. This is the only company presenting the play anywhere and the New York cast is headed by the noted star, John Barton.

Written by Jack Kirkland, the real "Tobacco Road," with its humorous and dramatic story of the illiterate and sex-ridden sharecroppers of Georgia, is the most successful play in the history of the theatre. It ran eight years and 3,180 performances on Broadway and has been presented in 310 cities in 41 states with return engagements of from one to eight times in 214 cities.

John Barton, now in his fifth year as Jeeter Lester, will give his 1,485th portrayal of the old Georgia sharecropper at the opening performance. The cast, made up of the players of the Broadway company includes Sara Perry as Ada—the wife, Vinnie Phillips, Robert Rose, Merryl Boyden, William Bishop, Sondra Johnson, Dick Lee, Lillian Ardell, William Robertson and Edwin Walter.

Mail orders are now being received for the final appearance of the modern American stage classic.

Antarctic Lemonade

Scientists have discovered a mixture of chalk and lemonade in mineral form at a depth of 13,000 feet in the Weddell sea of Antarctica. The scientists cannot explain how the citric acid of lemonade, heretofore found only in plants, came to be at the bottom of the Antarctic.

Fashion's Fur Favorite

THE FITTED SILHOUETTE in fur coats has trebled its popularity in the last three years. Frances Langford, diminutive singing star of the CBS "American Cruise" series, is shown here wearing a Russian broadtail model which combines three up-to-the-minute features — double cuff, front fullness achieved with flat box pleats, and suede belt.

Labors of Hercules

The 12 tasks of great difficulty imposed on Hercules by the Argive king were as follows: "To slay the Nemean lion, kill the Lernean hydra, catch and retain the Arcadian stag, destroy the Erymanthian boar, cleanse the stables of King Augeas, destroy the cannibal birds of the Lake Stymphalis, take captive the Cretan bull, catch the horses of the Thracian Diomedes, get possession of the girdle of Hyppolyta, queen of the Amazons; take captive the oxen of the monster Geryon, get possession of the apples of the Hesperides, and bring up from the infernal regions the three-headed dog Cerverus.

Cigarette Tax

Revenue stamps attached to cigarette packages yield up to $400,000,000 a year to the United States government.

Guard President

At President Roosevelt's party for Washington newspaper reporters, guests who had wandered to the south lawn had a queer sensation when they tried to get back into the Mansion and found the doors locked. Peering through the windows they saw that the brightly lighted Red room, the Blue room and the Green room had been suddenly emptied. Before long, a secret service aide came to explain. The rooms had been cleared to allow President Roosevelt to pass through to his private elevator. Just part of closer guarding of the President since the war has become worse.

Home Work

Since the invasion of Holland and Belgium, members of the senate committee handling army and navy affairs have taken to holding off-the-record evening meetings in each other's homes to brush up on the facts about Uncle Sam's defenses, with high United States military experts invited in as "teachers." The speed with which the senate has acted on national defense measures is taken as evidence that the senators are apt pupils and learn fast.

Ice Cream Cakes

Broadcast by Mary Lee Taylor, September 18, 1941

1¼ cups Pet Milk
1 package vanilla ice cream powder*
¼ cup cold water
1 teaspoon vanilla
6 slices plain loaf cake
1⅓ cups drained, sliced peaches, fresh or canned (No. 2 can)

Chill 1 cup milk until icy cold. Meanwhile, put ice cream powder in bowl. Stir in gradually a mixture of remaining ¼ cup cold milk, the water and vanilla. Chill thoroughly. Whip chilled milk with rotary egg beater, or electric beater at high speed, until stiff. Fold into chilled milk mixture. Freeze, without stirring, in mechanical refrigerator tray at coldest temperature, or in a mold buried in a mixture of 3 parts crushed ice to 1 part ice cream salt. Arrange cake slices on individual serving dishes. Arrange drained peaches in circle on cake slices, dividing equally. Put equal portions of ice cream in center of peaches. Serve at once. Serves 6.

*If Jell-O ice cream powder is used, you will [illegible] ½ cup.
